Responses from teams wanting to participate are overwhelming; however, invitations are extended to those teams with a demonstrated ability to play at a superior level. Undoubtedly, your participation in any of the KING of HOOPS Tournaments will be an unforgettable experience.

With respect to the KING of HOOPS Tour and to the teams participating, we ask that all teams come ready to play at any time. Because of the nature of the tournament (double elimination) your team could play at any time. As part of our responsibility to teach our children proper values, all teams are expected to display sportsmanship throughout the entire weekend. With that in mind, please be sure to review the tournament rules.

As always, we are committed to making this tour the most organized & recognized group of tournaments in the country and around the world. We look forward to the relationships that will be forged tournament weekend. All who attend and participate will feel the impact of these events.

With that being said, we wish you good luck and even better basketball!

Yours truly,

King of Hoops Team
